

Society

Food and friends

VIJAYANAND GUPTA

Sunil Kapoor, owner of Copper Chimney, Waheeda Rehman and Dilip Kumar at the relocated Copper Chimney at Worli, yesterday

Chimney nostalgia

IT was nostalgia time for Copper Chimney regulars last evening when the 30-year-old restaurant at Worli decided to relocate this week. Barely 100 metres away from where the original Copper Chimney once stood, the new place was buzzing with old-timers Dilip Kumar was Guest of Honour along with Waheeda Rehman, who — as we never forget to mention — looked lovely in red. And the actress' daughter Kashvi was the cynosure of all eyes in peach chiffon. Inspector General Subhash Malhotra was also present to wish the gracious owners, and so was Zeba Kohli of Fantasie chocolates.

Celebrity presence notwithstanding, the guests made starters and guzzling beer. It wasn't until midnight that everyone remembered that there was the special '70s buffet spread to be devoured.

Yes, chicken makhani that tasted just as buttery as it did 30 years ago when the place first opened.

The original '70s cuisine is being served at the restaurant only till Sunday, so make sure you reserve your table, or you just